Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Jenna Lin Everson, daughter of Curt and Roxy Everson, will graduate from T. F. Riggs High School in Pierre, South Dakota, on May 22, 2005, amidst the fanfare and celebration of family and friends; and,

Whereas, Jenna's graduation is a fitting and proper culmination of many years of hard work and dedication both inside and outside the classroom; and,

Whereas, Jenna's achievements are an inspiration to all young people in South Dakota who recognize that learning is not a product but a process that stays with us all during our lives; and,

Whereas, Jenna's love of dance and teaching younger students has allowed her to share her talent and grace at Sarah's Dance Studio; and,

Whereas, South Dakota's young people are our state's best investment in the future and our greatest hope for prosperity; and,

Whereas, Jenna's stalwart work ethic and powerful drive to succeed are preparation for a future filled with awesome challenges and unbounded opportunities:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 22, 2005, as in South Dakota, and I personally join Jenna's proud parents, relatives, many friends, and classmates in recognizing Jenna's accomplishments of the past and her promise for the future.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Second Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Five.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
